

Beetroot and Goats Cheese Salad

Seasonal dish

Beetroots are coming into season and they come in a lovely array of colours, so try to use as many of them as you can in this recipe for a really bright side dish.

We are getting to the time of the year where we are thinking about salads and even the heady days of summer and eating outside, this is a great easy side dish to accompany a large selection of dishes, anything from a spring Quiche to a summer BBQ.

I think the idea for this recipe originally came from a Slimming World magazine (the kind of thing i tend to pick up in the hairdressers or dentist!) but i have altered it a bit and i use it over and over again.

Easy Prep 15 Minutes Cooking Time 20 Minutes, this can be done in advance Serves 4 Serves 8 to 10

Ingredients

800g fresh Beetroots, as many different colours as you can get hold of
2 tbsp Olive Oil for roasting
100g Mixed salad leaves, try to include some
Rocket in this as it goes well with the Beetroot
1 small Red Onion thinly sliced
400g can Chickpeas, drained and rinsed
160g soft goats' cheese or Feta if you prefer
Freshly ground black pepper and salt
Sesame seeds to finish

If you are short on time then you can drizzle with a nice bought vinaigrette, but if you have time try this dressing for a change...

Dressing

200g Natural Yoghurt 1 x Clove Garlic finely chopped ½ tsp each of ground Cumin, Turmeric and Cinnamon Juice of 1 Lime 1 tsp runny Honey Handful of fresh Coriander

Method

Put all the dressing ingredients in a hand blender, give it a good blend and serve in a jug along side the salad.

Peel and cut the beetroots into even sized small cubes or wedge shapes, place in a roasting tray with the Olive Oil, Salt & Pepper and roast for 20 minutes at 200°C or until just cooked when you test with a sharp knife, do not overcook as they need to retain a bit of bite.

On a platter spread the leaves, holding a few sprigs of Rocket back to garnish.

Sprinkle over the leaves the onion and chickpeas, add the roasted beetroots, (which by the way can be warm if you are serving the salad immediately or they are equally tasty cold)

Crumble over the cheese, sprinkle with Sesame seeds and the remaining rocket.

A final twist of ground salt and pepper and serve with vinaigrette or the yoghurt dressing
